Parliamentary Diplomacy in European and Global Governance

Edited by Stelios Stavridis, ARAID/University of Zaragoza and Davor Jančić, Queen Mary University of London

In Parliamentary Diplomacy in European and Global Governance, 27 experts from all over the world analyse the fast-expanding phenomenon of parliamentary diplomacy. Through a wealth of empirical case studies, the book demonstrates that parliamentarians and parliamentary assemblies have an increasingly important international role. The volume begins with parliamentary diplomacy in Europe, because the European Parliament is one of the strongest autonomous institutional actors in world politics. The study then examines parliamentary diplomacy in relations between Europe and third countries or regions (Mexico, Turkey, Russia, the Mediterranean), before turning attention to the rest of the world: North and South America, Asia, Africa and Australia. This pioneering volume confirms the worldwide nature and salience of parliamentary diplomacy in contemporary global politics.

READERSHIP:
Academics, students, and policy makers interested in parliamentary affairs, European and global governance and anyone concerned with foreign affairs and diplomacy in general.
