

Summer Academy for Legal History 2022

4 July – 15 July 2022

Monday, 4 July

10:00-10:45 Stefanie Rüter (mpilht)
Welcome and Introduction / Max Planck Society

Coffee

11:00-12:00 Library Tour

12:00-13:00 Thomas Duve (Director mpilht)
The Max Planck Institute for Legal History and Legal Theory

Lunch

14:00-15:30 Guido Pfeifer (Goethe University)
Ancient fundamentals of the Western legal tradition

Coffee

16:00 Frankfurt City Tour / Dinner

Tuesday, 5 July

9:15-10:45 Alexandra Woods (mpilht)
Using history in law - introduction

Coffee

11:15-12:45 Christiane Birr (mpilht)
Ius commune - legists

Lunch & Study Time

15:30-17:00 Inge van Hulle (mpilht)
International law

Coffee

17:30-19:00 Using history in law – the case of the Hohenzollern

Wednesday, 6 July

9:15-10:45 Benedetta Rinaldi Ferri (University of Rom)

The obligation to work. Charity works and compulsory labour in Early Modern Europe

Laurin Manac'h (University of Paris 1)

Before commercial courts: references to the past and the shaping of company law (Catalonia, province of Buenos Aires, 1778-1840)

Coffee

11:15-12:45 Christoph Meyer (mpilht)

Ius commune – canonists

Lunch & Study Time

15:30-17:00 Silvia Escanilla Huerta (University of Illinois)

A fragmented sovereignty. Indigenous people, war and political change in the process of independence in the Viceroyalty of Peru (1783-1828)

Otávio Weinhardt (University of São Paulo)

Normative practices and the regulation of urban life at the beginning of the Republic in Brazil (1886-1920)

Coffee

17:30 PhD Meeting

Thursday, 7 July

9:15-10:45 Mary Haddad (Tel-Aviv University)

Egyptian experiences of International law (1882-1956)

Dejen Yemane Messele (Wollo University)

Ethiopia and International law: a history of encounters (1889-1995)

Coffee

11:15-12:45 Thorsten Keiser (mpilht/ University Gießen)

Contemporary legal history

Lunch & Study Time

14:00-15:30 Phillip Hellwege (University Augsburg)

Private Law

16:00 Historisches Museum Frankfurt

Friday, 8 July

9:15-10:45 Egaz Bender de Moniz (University Erlangen)
Constitutional histories

Coffee

11:15-12:45 Wingler Alves Pereira (Rio de Janeiro State University)
Space of experience and horizon of expectation in Brazilian constitutional thinking: a historical approach between "tupi or not tupi"
Gabriela Back Lombardi (Federal University of Paraná)
Jurists and civil codification in 19th century Brazil: history of legal thought and cultural translation

Lunch

14:00 Guided Campus Tour

Monday, 11 July

9:15-10:45 Marietta Auer (Director mpilht)
Legal theory

Coffee

11:15-12:45 Ricardo Spindola Diniz (University of Luxembourg)
Creatures of reason: the imminence of constitutional courts in liberal democracies
Haris Durrani (Princeton University)
Genealogies of the 'Global commons': making a legal concept in the Americas, 1957–present

Lunch & Study Time

15:30-17:00 Michael Banerjee (University of California)
'The highest form of juristic person known to the law': constitutional corporations and constitutional Universities in the American West (1850–1928)
Chu Ming-hsi (Northwestern University)
How to use history in law? An analysis of professional historians' Amicus briefs in the US Supreme Court

Coffee

17:30-19:00 Anselm Küsters (mpilht)
Law and technology

Tuesday, 12 July

9:15-10:45 Stefan Vogenauer (Director mpilht)
Common law

Coffee

11:15-12:45 Jonmani Das (Jawaharlal Nehru University)
Early modern forms and practices of legal authority: law, employment relations and social life in the English East India Company settlement of Madras (c. 1640s to 1750s)
Shreya Bhattacharya (SOAS University of London)
Practicing law, governing difference: multi-centric legal orders in the Indian subcontinent (1750- 1858)

Lunch & Study Time

15:30-17:00 Current research of the mpilht
Department Thomas Duve Historical Regimes of Normativity
Department Marietta Auer Multidisciplinary Theory of Law
Department Stefan Vogenauer European and Comparative Legal History

Coffee

18:00 Evening Lecture
Fernanda Pirie (University of Oxford)
Global legal history: an anthropological approach

Wednesday, 13 July

9:15-10:45 Jan-Henrik Meyer (mpilht)
Legal history of the European Union

Coffee

11:15-12:45 Tuuli Talvinko (University of Helsinki)
Political origins of 'rule of law' as European Union constitutional principle
Anna Saunders (University College London)
Securing invention: International law and the history of technology

Lunch & Study Time

15:30-17:00 Jan Langemeyer (University of Oxford)
The administrative state and its law: England, France, and Germany (1870–1914)
Gwinyai Machona (Humboldt University)
Colonialism, German administrative law and its scholarship between circa 1850 and 1933

Coffee

17:15- 18:00 Jordi Cerdà (Pompeu Fabra University)
The legal construction of Franco's monarchy (1936-1966)
18:00 Career Talk / Max Planck Law

Thursday, 14 July

9:15-10:45 Bárbara Madrugada Cunha (Federal University of Santa Catarina)
Legal abortion in cases of pregnancy resulting of rape: practices and legal conception in Southern Brasil (1940-1980)
Wallace Teska (Stanford University)
Law, religion, and social change in French West Africa (1890-1990)

Coffee

11:15-12:45 Talk Show 'Using history in law: results and further perspectives'

Lunch & Study Time

15:30 mpilht Summer Party

Friday, 15 July

9:15-12:45 Exams

Lunch

13:45-14:30 Feedback and farewell